HERCI MARSDEN

The Brae Crest School of Classical Ballet

The Brae Crest School of Classical Ballet was founded in 1958 by Herci and Myles Marsden, and is the official school of The State Ballet of Rhode Island. Since its inception, the school has established a reputation of the highest standards in ballet education. Excellence in training, artistic integrity, technique, correct physical development and personal discipline are balanced with pure aesthetic vision, emphasizing the joy, beauty and tradition of classical ballet.

Not only is the scenery tranquil and beautiful, but the training is, and has always been superb, with teachers who are dedicated in helping dancers evolve artistically and as humanitarians.

Brae Crest School has a beautiful historic studio with a dancer-friendly sprung floor, a horizon of windows and a relaxing landscape for guests and dancers to enjoy outside of the classroom.

We are conveniently located 10 minutes North of Providence and minutes away from major shopping plazas, restaurants, and coffee shops - directly off of Rte 146.
